November 18 Liturgical Music Service to Honor Lewandowski Centennial

The first of Park Avenue Synagogue's two annual liturgical music services will take place on Friday, November 18 at 8:00 P.M. This will mark the 51st consecutive year of the annual Shabbath Eve Liturgical Music Service, which was inaugurated in 1943 by our late cantor, David J. Putterman, together with the famous conductor Max Helfman. Cantor David Lefkowitz has arranged a complete Shabbath Eve/Thanksgiving Service of music by Louis Lewandowski to honor the 100th yearzeit of Synagogue Music's most significant composer. Abraham Kaplan will direct the Synagogue Concert Choir for the 26th consecutive year, accompanied at the organ by Neil Robinson, now in his 30th year with our congregation.

Louis Lewandowski, 1821-1894, had the most widespread and long-lasting influence of all Synagogue Music composers. His beautiful melodies and choral compositions are still very popular today, 100 years after his death. He was the first professional choral director of the main synagogue in Berlin, a position he held for 54 years. With the two-volume choral publication of Todah Wesimrah in 1877 and 1882, he rapidly became the worldwide master of Synagogue Song.

This annual Friday Eve Music Service is made possible by the Jack and Zella Butler Music Endowment, and is a wonderful opportunity for congregants and friends to appreciate the great riches of Jewish religious culture that have been the hallmark of our congregation. The service will be followed by a gala reception in honor of the artists.

Reverend Jesse L. Jackson To Deliver Sherr Lecture on Monday, December 5

Reverend Jesse L. Jackson, president of the National Rainbow Coalition and one of the most prominent political figures in the United States, will deliver the 1994 Sherr Lecture at the Park Avenue Synagogue on Monday evening, December 5 at 7:30 P.M. Admission to this lecture is free.

"We are delighted that Reverend Jackson will address our congregation and discuss the many pressing issues facing both the Jewish and the African-American communities in this country," said Rabbi David H. Lincoln. "Over the past several years, he has eloquently worked to bring our two communities closer together, and he has been an admirable voice of restraint and moderation in the face of conflict. He continues to be an outspoken advocate for the poor, the underprivileged and the oppressed both in the United States and throughout the world. It is most appropriate, therefore, that we will have the opportunity to listen to him at this critical time in our nation's history."

Ever since he came to prominence as an assistant to Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. in the civil rights movement of the 1960's, Reverend Jackson has been a central personality on the American political scene. His two presidential campaigns in 1984 and 1988 registered millions of new voters throughout the country. In addition to his widespread domestic concerns, he also has actively participated in international affairs, and has long been a strong supporter of a negotiated Middle

From The Rabbi's Desk

November is the month when we recall the events of Kristallnacht, and seeing the newly refurbished New Synagogue on the Oranienburger Strasse in Berlin last July reminded me of an incident of heroism that fateful night. The official booklet of the Centre states the following:

"During the night of November 9-10, 1938, the New Synagogue was not spared: but Wilhelm Krutzfeld, the 'courageous chief' of the district police precinct, number 16, on Hackescher Markt, protected the synagogue on that night from a larger fire. SA men had set fire to the wedding hall, formally the men's vestibule. 'But it wasn't long,' writes the author Hans Knobloch, 'before [Krutzfeld] appeared at the scene with a couple of men and chased off the arsonists-with drawn pistol and a file containing the letter placing the significant artistic and cultural value of the building under police protection. At the same time, the police officer ordered the fire department to the site of the blaze. They came, and extinguished it....'"

"In the literature, a photo of the burning New Synagogue frequently appears bearing a caption claiming to show the temple on the night of November 9. The fact alone that in this picture the small eastern dome, together with the entire tower, cannot be found proves this date cannot be correct. By Passover, 1939, the New Synagogue was once again in use. At the service on the first night of Passover, on April 2, 1939, Rabbi Max Wiener gave an address referring to the situation: it was understood by everyone."

Actually, British air-raids heavily damaged the synagogue in 1943, and the photograph was retouched after the war to look as if it was burned in 1938!

Chief Wilhelm Krutzfeld was sent to the Russian front and was killed. But his memory is to be

It seems that members of our N.Y.P.D. have heard about this gallant policeman from their Jewish Chaplain Rabbi Alvin Kass, and policemen of all faiths are hoping to send a delegation to Berlin to pay tribute to his memory and meet with members of his family.

The Legends of the Rabbis by Rabbi Judah Nadich

"Rabbi Nadich enchants the reader with the profound wisdom of ancient founders of rabbinic literature and the depth of their teaching," wrote Eli Wiesel in his review of Rabbi Nadich's two volume set, The Legends of the Rabbis (Volume I: Jewish Legends of the Second Commonwealth; Volume II: The First Generation after the Destruction of the Temple and Jerusalem) to be published early this month.

According to the September 29, 1994 issue of The Jewish Book News, "One of the most eventful eras of Jewish history was that of the Second Commonwealth, the period between the return of the Jews from Babylonian exile during the last third of the sixth century B.C.E. to the destruction of the Second Temple by the Romans in 70 C.E. Four great empires of antiquity-Babylonia, Persia, Greece, and Rome-reached the zenith of their powers during this period and the Jews of Judea were among their subject peoples. Despite external pressures, these centuries witnessed an extraordinary flowering of Jewish achievement, resulting in the creation of the last books of the Bible, their canonization, the writing of apocryphal and pseudepigraphical works, the establishment of the Great Assembly and the Sanhedrin, and the evolution of the Oral Law."

Rabbi Nadich's "wide-ranging volumes-enhanced by several indexes, a bibliography, and a list of sources-sets forth the aggadot, or legends, of this important time as well as that of the generation immediately after the destruction of the Second Temple. Culled from ancient rabbinic texts, including talmudic and midrashic works, they are woven together in a continuous narrative, organized sequentially and grouped by persons, places, institutions, and historic events. Compelling reading in themselves, these legends cast light on ancient Jewish attitudes toward people and events. They are also an incomparable source for learning about the practical wisdom of the rabbis, the values they cherished, the theology of Judaism, the Messiah and the world to come, and the relationship between Israel and the nations of the world. Finally, the legends reflect the political, economic, and social conditions of the times and reveal fascinating aspects of historical personalities and happenings — Cyrus the Great, Ezra, the Septuagint, Alexander the Great, the Maccabean revolt, the first generation of tannaim, the destruction of the Second Temple."

According to Rabbi Nadich, "the personalities of the Talmud had in common a love of God and the Jewish people and a recognition of the fact that the life of that people was based on the book-the Scriptures. They also knew that the Scriptures had to be understood for and applied to the problems of each succeeding generation. It was to this task that they applied themselves and the result was the Oral Law, set down in its evolution in the Talmud."

Reverend Jesse L. Jackson

East peace process. In 1984, he secured the release of captured U.S. Navy Lieutenant Robert Goodman from Syria.

An admirer of Rabbi Abraham Joshua Heschel, he has urged the Jewish and African-American communities to work together and to renew the links that have historically united them. In recent years, he has addressed gatherings and conventions of the World Jewish Congress, the Rabbinical Assembly, the United Synagogue of Conservative Judaism, and the Conference of Presidents of Major American Jewish Organizations.

The Sherr Lecture, delivered annually by a prominent public figure, is made possible by a generous grant from Jean and Abraham I. Sherr. In past years, the Honorable Abba Eban, Secretary of State George Shultz, New York Governor Mario Cuomo, and Archbishop of New York, John Cardinal O'Connor, among others, have delivered the Sherr Lecture.

Annual Sisterhood Luncheon Wednesday, December 14

Sisterhood's annual gala luncheon will take place on Wednesday, December 14th at 11:30 A.M. The theme of the luncheon will be Russian, featuring delectable gourmet Russian food suggested by our excellent caterer, Newman & Levanthal, followed by entertainment consisting of folk dancers from various Republics of the former Soviet Union who will perform in their ethnic costumes.

Georgi Shakhnevich who so delighted Sisterhood guests at his last appearance will do solos on his accordion during the breaks.

This program has a two-fold purpose: it will benefit the emigre artists and give them exposure, and it will also benefit Sisterhood by providing the organization with an exciting and exotic afternoon of entertainment.

In addition, there will be the usual array of superb raffles, prizes, and door prizes, as well as the noted restaurant raffle.

The purchase or sale of one booklet of raffles for $70 will insure your admission to what will be an absolutely unforgettable afternoon.

The luncheon is the highlight of Sisterhood's activities and its only major fundraising project.

It is being co-chaired by Phyllis Cornell and Vicki Wimpfheimer.

Come and bring a friend or two and enjoy!

New Juvenile Books:

Klein: The B.Y.Times #14: Nechama on Strike

Judaica Classics

Judaica Classics, Park Avenue Synagogue's exciting gift shop, is featuring a fabulous and unique collection of menorahs for the upcoming festival of Hanukkah. Many of the menorahs are one-of-a-kind signed works of art, while others are whimsical, musical, and well-suited for young children. They come in sterling silver, silver plate, brass, ceramic, lucite and anything else that artists could possibly use creatively. And these menorahs are priced to suit any and every budget.

And especially for Hanukkah, the gift shop also will feature a complete line of games and toys, books for children of all ages, driedels made of sterling silver, wood, ceramic, and glass, and unique Hanukkah candles.

Please stop in to say hello and to see what the gift shop has to offer. Doina Bryskin is looking forward to meeting you and to serving your Judaic and gift-giving needs.
